THE HONORARY DEGREES

DOCTOR OF SACRED THEOLOGY — EDWIN F. LEE

A graduate of the College of Liberal Arts of this University, and of Garrett Biblical Institute; for many years pastor of Methodist churches in Malaya and in Manila; chaplain with the A.E.F. in World War I; elected missionary bishop in 1928, with headquarters in Manila and Singapore; decorated by the French government for his service as chaplain; by Yugoslavia for his assistance in the program of relief, and by Great Britain for his educational work in Malaya; now Director of the General Commission on Army and Navy Chaplains, representing thirty Protestant denominations; a statesman among religious leaders; an influential religious leader among statesmen.

Presented by James Alton James, Dean Emeritus of the Graduate School

DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS — VAN WYCK BROOKS

Discerning critic and interpreter of the literature of France, England, and above all, our own country. As an historian of American literature he has portrayed for us a past in which we may take pride, leading to a future in which we may have confidence.

Presented by Arthur Case, Professor of English in the College of Liberal Arts

DOCTOR OF LAWS — ROBERT TREAT CRANE

Political scientist and director of research, able jurist and competent member of the United States Foreign Service; learned and beloved teacher at the University of Michigan; pioneer in the field of governmental management; for fifteen years executive director of the Social Science Research Council, under whose wise administration the methods of research in government and politics have been extended and modernized.

Presented by Kenneth Colegrove, Professor of Political Science in the College of Liberal Arts

DOCTOR OF LAWS — JOHN EVANS

Banker, industrialist and educator; leader in the business and civic life of the state of Colorado; successively President and Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the University of Denver for more than twenty years, carrying on the tradition of his grandfather, another John Evans, who gave his name to this city of Evanston, was one of the founders of Northwestern University, and for four decades President of its Board of Trustees.

Presented by Kenneth F. Burgess, President of the Board of Trustees

DOCTOR OF FINE ARTS — MALVINA HOFFMAN

A sculptor whose art perpetuates in stone and bronze the complex natures of our day and the forms and life of simpler peoples; whose Hall of Man unites the ways of art and science in man's study of mankind. Traveler, student, artist, her work has carried first her person, then her fame, to the four quarters of the earth.

Presented by J. Carson Webster, Associate Professor of Art in the College of Liberal Arts

DOCTOR OF LAWS — RANDALL JACOBS

Vice Admiral in the United States Navy, and the Chief of Naval Personnel. A skillful and courageous administrator, who has had a large share of responsibility for the war-time expansion of our Navy, and for the establishment of the educational system through which the universities of America have cooperated with the Navy in the training of Reserve Officers. In the selection of officers for important commands he has shown unerring judgment; his fellow officers are unanimous in acclaiming him a great leader, to whom should be given much of the credit for the elimination of the German submarine from the Atlantic and for the victories over Japan in the Pacific.

Presented by Captain Charles J. Stuart, USN, Professor of Naval Science and Tactics

THE DEGREES IN COURSE

The appearance of a name on this list is presumptive evidence of graduation but is not to be regarded as conclusive.

The list of persons in national service is known to be incomplete. Any information which will make the University records more accurate will be welcome.

CONVOCATION FOR THE AWARDING OF DEGREES AND COMMISSIONS

Friday, October 26, 1945

CAHN AUDITORIUM, EVANSTON, ILLINOIS

CITATION BY RAWLEIGH WARNER, A MEMBER OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES,

In Presenting

FLEET ADMIRAL ERNEST J. KING

FOR THE HONORARY DEGREE

of

DOCTOR OF LAWS

On the recommendation of the University Senate, I present for the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws, Fleet Admiral Ernest J. King. A graduate of distinction from the Naval Academy in the Class of 1901, he served as an ensign on the Asiatic station, and as a lieutenant on engineering duty with the Atlantic Fleet. Later he became flag secretary to the Commander in Chief, U.S. Atlantic Fleet, saw active destroyer duty as a lieutenant commander, and in due course was appointed Assistant Chief of Staff to the admiral commanding the Atlantic Fleet. Subsequently he became commander of submarine flotillas, Atlantic Fleet, and commanding officer of the submarine base at New London, Connecticut, and of all submarines based thereon.

He qualified as a naval aviator in 1927, and later became commander of aircraft squadrons of the scouting fleet, Assistant Chief of the Bureau of Aeronautics, commanding officer of the USS Lexington, commander of Patrol Wing I, and commander of the Aircraft base force.

In 1939 he reported for duty as a member of the General Board of the Navy. In February, 1941, he became Commander in Chief of the Atlantic Fleet. On December 30, 1941, he was appointed Commander in Chief of the U.S. Fleet, and by executive order on March 12, 1942, Chief of Naval Operations as well. On December 15, 1944, he became Fleet Admiral, the highest grade in our Navy.

He has well earned and wears with distinction many orders and decorations. Of primary importance are our own Navy Cross, the Distinguished Service Medal and the gold star for its second award.

Student, tactician, strategist, calm in emergency, forceful in argument, a great executive—Ernest Joseph King, the fighting leader of the greatest Navy the world has ever seen.

RESPONSE

HYMN

Eternal Father! strong to save,
Whose arm hath bound the restless wave,
Who bidd'st the mighty ocean deep
Its own appointed limits keep;
O hear us when we cry to Thee
For those in peril on the sea.

Creator! who dost from above
Observe Thy sons with eyes of love,
Who canst preserve where'er they be
Our men who fight for home and Thee;
O put Thou forth a guiding hand,
For those in peril on the land.

Almighty! who canst from on high
Protect our fliers in the sky
And guide each pilot in his plane
The length and breadth of Thy domain;
O hearken to our fervent prayer,
For those in peril in the air.

O Trinity of love and power!
Our forces shield in danger's hour;
From peril, onslaught, fire and foe
Protect them where-so-e'er they go;
Thus ever may there rise to Thee
Glad hymns from air and land and sea.
—Captain Richard W. Bates, U.S.N.
